

Education and employment

Professor of Cancer Epidemiology, King's College London

Director of Cancer Epidemiology and Population Health, King's Health Partners Comprehensive Cancer Centre

08.73 06.76: High school, Rungsted Statsskole, Rungsted, Denmark.

09.76 06.84: University of Copenhagen. BSc and MSc in biology (six years) and BA in social science (two years). Post-graduate research student at Institute of Population Biology, 1981-84. Specialisation and research in ecology, demography and population genetics.

09.84 08.85: British Council Studentship at Department of Pure & Applied Zoology, University of Reading, England. Theoretical and experimental work in demography and population genetics.

09.85 05.86: External teacher (part time) in environmental health at the School of Nursing at Bispebjerg Hospital, Copenhagen.

03.86 01.92: Epidemiologist at the Danish Cancer Registry, the Danish Cancer Society. Cross sectional study of endogenous nitrosation. Cohort studies of cancer incidence in patient groups. Case control studies of testicular cancer and cryptorchidism. Fellowships from the Danish Medical Research Council and the Danish Cancer Society.

08.88 01.92: External lecturer in epidemiology (part time) at University of Copenhagen.

01.92 08.95: Scientist and Acting Unit Chief in Unit of Carcinogen Identification and Evaluation, International Agency for Research on Cancer, Lyons, France. Preparation of IARC Monographs on the Evaluation of Carcinogenic Risks to Humans. Organisation of working group meetings. Research in cancer epidemiology.

10.95-12.99: Director, Centre for Register-based Research, the Danish National Research Foundation, Copenhagen. Founding Director of the Centre. Provision of information and practical assistance to researchers on the use of data from administrative registers. Research in epidemiology, demography and social medicine.

01.2000-present: Professor of Cancer Epidemiology at King's College London School of Medicine. Director at the Thames Cancer Registry (2000-2011). National and international leadership roles in cancer registration. Director of Cancer Epidemiology and Population Health, King's Health Partners Cancer Centre (2011-present). Research in cancer epidemiology and health services research.